Confidentiality Contract for Marital, Family and Child / Parent Therapy

This contract is an agreement between the interested parties that no party shall attempt to subpoena my testimony or my records for a deposition or court hearing of any kind for any reason.

All parties acknowledge that the goal of psychotherapy is the amelioration of psychological distress, and that the process of psychotherapy depends on trust and openness during the therapy session.

Therefore it is understood by all parties that if they request my services as a psychotherapist, they are not to expect or believe that information given to me during the therapy process could be used against the, nor in their favor, in a judicial setting of any kind, be it civil, criminal, or circuit.

The signatures below reflect that the parties agree to the terms set forth above.
